FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

WINTER PARK JAZZ FESTIVAL NEW HEADLINER

Charlie Wilson to headline Saturday, July 15, 2017

Dear Winter Park Jazz Fans,

We have some good news and bad news for you.

The Bad News first:

Unfortunately, due to health reasons, FRANKIE BEVERLY has had to cancel all of his July concerts — including his appearance at Winter Park Jazz Festival. Of course, we are so disappointed as we have been trying to have Frankie and Maze literally for years. We wish Frankie all the best with his surgery and recovery and look forward to bringing them back another time.

Really, Really Good and Excellent News:

CHARLIE WILSON is confirmed as the headliner on Saturday, July 15 and we are SO EXCITED! As Winter Park Jazz fans may recall, Charlie's performance in 2012 was one of the best we've ever had in Winter Park. Since that time his career and band have expanded exponentially! We are sure that hearing cuts from his new recording, "In It To Win It" as well as all of his Gap Band hits will be a highlight of everyone's summer. We feel so fortunate to have Charlie Wilson be a part of the Winter Park Jazz Festival as we continue to bring you the best event possible.

Ready to get fired up? Tune into Jimmy Kimmel Live tonight, June 7th and see Charlie Wilson featuring Robin Thicke live on the show! For all things, Charlie Wilson visit his website charliewilsonmusic.com Please note that we are not able to offer refunds for this event and we sincerely hope that you agree this is a good solution to a difficult situation. We appreciate your continued support and look forward to seeing you!

Best and most sincerely,

The Producers of Winter Park Jazz
